THE South-Carolina GAZETTE.

From THURSDAY March 6th, to THURSDAY March 13th, 1755.

KINGSTON, January 25.

On Monday last the General Aſſembly of this Iſland, met according to their laſt Prorogation, when his Excellency was pleaſed to make the following Speech:

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

I AM concern'd the exigency of affairs, ſhould oblige me to call you together at a time when I am ſenſible, moſt of your private concerns require your preſence in the country. But as the buſineſs for which you now meet, may ſoon be put an end to, 'tis in your own breaſts to give it ſuch diſpatch as you ſhall find moſt convenient.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

As proviſion hath been ſo lately made for moſt of the current ſervices of the year, I have now only to recommend to you the reviving your deficiency and agency bills, and providing a competent ſum for the carrying on the fortifications, ſo neceſſary to be finiſhed and put in a poſture of defence at this critical conjuncture; an eſtimate of which I ſhall order to be laid before you.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

Should any other matters occur to you for promoting the good of his majeſty's ſervice, and the welfare and proſperity of this Iſland, in which my concurrence is needful, you may depend on my chearfully aſſenting to every thing that may contribute to ſuch deſirable ends. to you for your ſteadineſs and ſupport of my Adminiſtration, which I aſſure you ſhall ever be directed to the good of the people.

To His Excellency CHARLES KNOWLES, Eſq; Captain General, Governor and Commander in Chief in and over this His Majeſty's Iſland of Jamaica, and the Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor and Vice-Admiral of the ſame, and Rear Admiral of the Red Squadron of His Majeſty's Fleet.

The Humble ADDRESS of the ASSEMBLY.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the aſſembly of this his majeſty's iſland of Jamaica, return your excellency our moſt ſincere and hearty thanks for your ſpeech at the opening of the ſeſſion, and beg leave to aſſure your excellency, that whenever you ſhall judge our meeting to be neceſſary for the publick good, no regard for our private concerns, ſhall give the leaſt obſtruction to the performance of our duty to his majeſty or to our country. The importance of the Subjects your excellency hath been pleaſed to mention, will, with us, receive the greateſt weight from your excellency's recommendation, particularly that of providing a fund for putting our fortifications into a poſture of defence, which we ſhould be wanting in duty to our ſovereign, and unmindful of our own ſecurity, were we to neglect at a time when we know not how ſoon we may ſtand in need of them for our preſervation; and when we have the [illegible] matters which made it neceſſary to call you together at this time of the year. But however well I may be ſatisfied with you in other reſpects, my duty to the beſt of kings in the office which I have the Honour to hold, leaves me not at liberty to act in concert with you, while you ſuffer a man who was convicted of diſaffection and ſeditionable expreſſions againſt his majeſty's royal perſon and government, to ſit among you, and who was publickly puniſhed for it, and is ſtill under a recognizance for his good behaviour.

I do therefore in his majeſty's name, by and with the advice of his council, diſſolve this preſent aſſembly, and you are hereby diſſolved accordingly.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21

Camp Mount Pleaſant, Dec. 29, 1754.

"We have no News here, only that about a Week ago, there came to the Camp fifteen Indians, Allies of the Six Nations, with a white Flag of Truce. We ſuſpected they were French Indians, tho' they made their Speech to us, with ſeven Belts of Wampum, and told us, they came from ſeven Nations, on or near the Lakes, to ſpeak with us as Friends; and this Day, four of our friendly Indians came to us from Mr. Croghan's, being ſent for on this Occaſion. To day our Commander in Chief is to return an Anſwer to their Belts, the Purport of which ſhall inform you in my next. Theſe Indians ſpeak good French, which leaves room to ſuſpect they may be employ'd as Spies; however, they can obſerve nothing to our Diſadvantage."

[illegible] majeſty's Fleet.

The Humble ADDRESS of His Majeſty's COUNCIL of Jamaica.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, his majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the council of Jamaica, beg leave to offer our unfeigned thanks for your excellency's ſpeech at the opening of this ſeſſion.

Gratitude obliges us to confeſs a long experience of your excellency's tenderneſs and regard to our private intereſts, as well as your attention to the public good; and therefore we hope, your excellency will be induced to believe, that we ſhall ever pay a moſt chearful obedience whenever you ſhall be pleaſed to call us together, unmindful of any advantages which might otherwiſe attend our private concerns; and that we are now met heartily diſpoſed to give all poſſible diſpatch to the buſineſs recommended to us.

Your excellency has in all your actions demonſtrated yourſelf ſo well diſpoſed to promote the welfare and proſperity of the Iſland, and ſo ſteadily purſued the meaſures tending to this end, that we cannot have the leaſt doubt of your giving a chearful aſſent to every thing that can be propoſed for the common good.

We ſhould be wanting in that juſtice due to your excellency, did we not expreſs our ſenſe of theſe matters, and our hopes and wiſhes for the continuance of an adminiſtration, wherein your excellency's abilities, zeal and inclinations, all concur to make us a happy people.

Paſſed the Council, the 21*ſt Day of* January 1755.

JOHN REED, Cl. Counc.

His EXCELLENCY's Anſwer.

Gentlemen of the Council,

I Heartily thank you for your very kind Addreſs; the Zeal with which you have always acted to promote both his Majeſty's Service, and the Peace and Welfare of your Country, leaves me no room to doubt of your ready Concurrence in all ſuch Meaſures as can accompliſh theſe deſirable Ends. My grateful Acknowledgments are due [illegible] *the greateſt Satisfaction. We o[illegible]arts incited by your excellency's laudable offer, ſhall with the moſt diſpaſſionate and impartial conſideration, endeavour to provide and lay before your excellency ſuch meaſures as may be effectual for thoſe glorious ends, and eſtabliſhing the public peace and tranquillity, upon a ſure and laſting foundation.

Paſſed the Aſſembly the 21*ſt Day of* Jan. 1755.

To which his Excellency was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

I return you my moſt hearty thanks for your very kind addreſs. The duty and loyalty you expreſs to his majeſty is truly becoming Engliſh ſubjects to the beſt of kings, and the aſſurances you give me that you will raiſe a ſum of money for finiſhing your fortifications, are proofs of your regard for the ſafety and defence of your country.

The good opinion you entertain of my ability, demands my greateſt acknowledgements, and you may reſt aſſured, that the money you raiſe for the uſe of the forts and fortifications, ſhall be frugally applied.

The hopes you give me that you will concur with me in every meaſure that can promote his majeſty's ſervice, and eſtabliſh the public peace and tranquillity upon a laſting Foundation, rejoices me beyond expreſſion, as I have nothing ſo much at heart, as the happineſs and eaſe of the people.

KINGSTON, Feb. 1.

Friday laſt, the 24th Inſtant, January, His Excellency was pleaſed to diſſolve the Aſſembly, with the following Speech:

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

IT is with the utmoſt concern I find myſelf obliged to part with an aſſembly which hath given me ſuch aſſurances of carrying on the public buſineſs with Temper and harmony before you could compleat thoſe important [illegible] the anſwer to the ſame, with a very handſome Preſent, which they accepted with great Joy and Thanks, declaring, that they would repreſent to their Nations, the Civility they had received from their Brethren the Engliſh.—If we can but get the Indians, we ſhall eaſily find a Method to manage the French, which is the chief Thing we want to bring about; and I believe it is what the Indians in general much deſire."

On Sunday the Cherokee Indians, mentioned in our laſt, ſet out from this Place, on their Way to Charles Town, in South Carolina.

Boſton, Jan. 20. We have advice, that ſometime in November laſt, a French Man of War of 74 Guns was loſt in a violent Storm in the Harbour of Quebeck, in Canada.

Philadelphia, Jan. 28. On Friday laſt arrived here from Virginia, Lieutenant Colonel Elliot, of Governor Shirley's Regiment, and Lieutenant-Colonel Mercer, of Sir William Pepperell's Regiment, in their Way to Boſton. We hear that Governor Shirley's Regiment will be ſtationed at New York, and Sir William Pepperell's at Philadelphia.

New York, Feb. 3. Since the 4th of February 1754, to the 3d of February, 1755, 421 Sail of Sea Veſſels, arrived in this Port; and during the ſaid Time, 390 ſailed from hence.

Philadelphia, Feb. 4. On Tueſday laſt the Lieutenant Colonels Elliot and Mercer, ſet out from this City for New-York, on their Way to Boſton.

The ſame Day Mr. Pitcher, Commiſſary of the Maſters, arrived here from New-York, and on Friday proceeded on his Journey for Wills's Creek.

And on Wedneſday the two Aid-de-camps of Governor Shirley's and Sir William Pepperell's Regiments, came to Town from Virginia, and ſet out from hence for Boſton.

Philadelphia, Feb. 18. By a Gentleman who left Winchester, in Virginia, the third inſtant, and from ſome private letters, we have the following intelligence, viz. That Sir John Sinclair, and Governor Sharpe, had been at Wills's Creek, and were returned; and that they had view'd the great falls at Potowmack, and were in hopes of blowing them up, ſo as to make the River navigable there for flat bottom'd veſſels, which, if effected, will be of the greateſt ſervice, in tranſporting proviſions for our forces. That one of our Indians is lately arrived at Wills's Creek, from the Ohio, who ſaid, that he could not form a judgment of the particular number of troops the French had then in that country; but this in general they ſeemed to be very numerous People daily arriving and marching from Fort to Fort; that they [illegible] had begun to build another Fort; and that they were not well supplied with Bread but had enough of other provisions.—That a party of French and Indians were not long since seen a few miles from our camp, in order, as it was thought, to get intelligence of our strength, &c.—That Lieutenant colonel Stephens, with the last detachment of the Virginia forces, arrived the 6th instant at Winchester, on their way to Wills's Creek, having marched upwards of ninety Miles in four Days, notwithstanding the deepness of the Road at this advanced season. [A good Presage of what may be expected from Troops, animated by the influence and example of officers of such Spirit and Activity.] That our Forces, when all join'd at the camp, will amount to about 1000 Men.—That it was reported the train of Artillery, from England, arrived on the 27th ult. in Virginia, with 150 Matrosses, clyaths, and military Stores, of all sorts, for several thousand men; that a camp was mark'd out for them at a place called Wurkin's ferry; and that they sail'd in company with the transports bound to Cork, to take on board the two regiments there for America, which, with General Braddock, may be daily expected.—And that there were a number of men at work at Patowmack, building batteaux for transporting the cannon, &c.

New-York, Feb. 3. We learn from Louisbourg, in Cape Breton, that there were in December last, near forty sail of French merchantmen in that port, mostly Sloops and Schooners, and but few topsail vessels among them: (So that the report of a French squadron of men of war's either arriving or being there, is entirely groundless.) That provisions in general were extremely scarce: That their fortifications throughout lay entirely neglected: And, that the inhabitants seemingly, pretend to be greatly dissatisfied at the indifference of the court of France with regard to the present situation of their government affairs; and otherwise ironically expressed themselves touching their dependency on the Gallic Crown.—(These several intelligences from Cape Breton seem more than probable to be true, since 'tis beyond dispute the people there are as charitably disposed to supply and relieve their friends and acquaintances up the River St. Lawrence, and those lately settled down that of Ohio, with bread, flour, &c. as some good-natur'd christians among the English are in supplying the Cape Bretoners with the like, and many other useful commodities.) And their several pretences of being dissatisfied with the behaviour of their mother-country, render it as probable that the whole is alone calculated the better to "lull us into all the negligence of security, in order to wound us the deeper" on "one side."

The general assembly of this province is to meet here to-morrow.

We hear that circular letters are dispatched to summon the general assembly of the province of New-Jersey, to meet at Elizabeth-Town on the 20th of this instant February.

We hear the general assembly of the Colony of Connecticut have ordered 7500 l. proclamation money, to be issued in bills of credit, and to bear interest at 5 per cent. for three years. The chief of which, it is said, is to be employed in providing provisions for such forces as may be raised in that government for the defence of the British interest in America.

LONDON, Dec. 25.

The Africa, Mason, from South-Carolina, for Lancaster, is put into Whitehaven.

December 28. It is said in some private letters from Paris, that the want of instructions is the reason of the duke de Mirepoix's delaying his return to London; and the reasons they assign for his not having receiv'd his instructions a month or six Weeks ago, is, that they are apprehensive of changes in our ministry; consequently, they think it needless to send back his excellency, 'till they know what persons he is to treat with about the affairs of North-America, the Neutral Islands, the difference between the two East-India companies, &c.

We hear that the right hon. sir John Ligonier will be appointed colonel of the second regiment of foot guards, in the room of the late earl of Albemarle.

And that his grace the duke of Leeds will be appointed privy seal, in the room of the earl Gower.

Dec 31. Our correspondent at Cowes writes, that on monday last his majesty's Ship Centurion, commodore Keppel, with the Norwich, Capt. Harrington for Virginia, passed by that place.

The last letters from Lisbon mention, that they are making levies all over Portugal to augment their troops.

It is said now with some certainty, that the right hon. the present earl Gower will resign the privy seals to his majesty next Monday, and that they will be disposed of as mentioned in our last.

We learn from Rome that they have begun to repair the port of Ancona, the expence of which will be very considerable, but 'tis thought it will be one of the most commodious ports of all Italy when finished.

CHARLES-TOWN, March 13.

The Bristol Merchant, Capt. Parson, from Bristol for this Port, is put into Wicomb.

And we hear, that another Vessel bound for this Port, is put into Cape-Fear, having been dismasted near this Bar.

On Thursday last THOMAS LYNCH, Esq; was married to Miss HANNAH MOTTE, fourth Daughter of our Public Treasurer; a young Lady of Merit and Beauty.

On Friday put in here His Majesty's Snow Baltimore, commanded by Capt. Suckling, which sail'd above a Month ago from Cape-Fear to Virginia, but was beat off the Coast.

We hear that His Majesty's Snow Jamaica sails the first fair Wind for Virginia.
